

Fifth 2010 Kudzu Klinik Announcement and Registration

Sunday, November 7, 9:00AM to 4:00 PM

Wishing Tree Farm, Danielsville, GA 30633

Clinician

Beth Stelzleni

The Kudzu Clinics are a service offered to members of GDCTA. In the spirit of improving the skills of our members and their horses, about four times each year, riding instructors and barns donate their time and facilities toward a low key but high quality instructional experience. The fifth Kudzu Klinik in the 2010 series has been developed with the combined training rider in mind. Beth Stelzleni and Wishing Tree Farm have graciously offered their expertise and facility for a Kudzu Klinik focusing on stadium jumping: gymnastics and course work. The clinic will focus on developing rhythm and adjustability as the horse and rider navigate the circuit.

Fees (includes lunch) - $20 GDCTA. $10 Auditors

Clinic Date: November 7, 2010 (Please note, this is Sunday)

Time: Begins 9:00 AM Ends 4:00 PM

Closing Date: November 4, 2010. This Kudzu Klinik will utilize group lessons with the size of the group dependent on the number of entrants. If you will be sharing a trailer with a friend or if there is someone at your skill level with whom you would like to ride, please let us know on the registration form. Any number of auditors are of course welcome.

Clinician: Beth Stelzleni, bstelzleni@gmail.com, 706-207-1722 cell

Beth Stelzleni has been a competitive equestrian for over 20 years, starting in the hunter/jumper world before moving to dressage and eventing. Beth has competed to Intermediate level eventing, Fourth level dressage, and Level 5 jumpers. Beth focuses on correct flatwork to establish a solid foundation for jumping and uses positive, confidence building instruction methods. She is known for her patience and insight in determining the best approach for horse and rider and is gifted in helping to create harmony in the pair. Beth is committed to teaching her clients not only the "how" of riding, but the "why" as well. She is able to pull from many different areas of knowledge to create horse and rider teams that are safe, correct, and most of all enjoy what they do.

Wishing Tree farm is located in Danielsville, Georgia. Day stalling is available for $10.00 if desired. Please bring with you a check made out directly to Wishing Tree Farm. Directions are good on GoggleMaps.
